

Notices of Jurisdiction

The Nation of Gods Embassy operates under the private domain of Nevana USA. Our authority is derived from natural law, Divine law, and treaty law, not statutory or corporate jurisdictions.

All interactions with the Embassy — whether through this website, in correspondence, or in person — are subject to the following:

- 1. Private Domain Authority

The Embassy is a sovereign and spiritual entity existing in the private domain. No statutory or governmental jurisdiction is assumed unless explicitly agreed to in writing by both parties.

- 2. Contractual Basis

All engagements with the Embassy are governed by contract, treaty, or private agreement. Continued use of this website or communication with the Embassy constitutes acknowledgement of this jurisdiction.

- 3. Diplomatic Standing

The Embassy is the diplomatic and representative arm of the Nation of Gods. Its archives, premises, communications, and representatives are recognized as protected under principles of private and treaty law.

- 4. Non-Applicability of Statutory Law

Laws of corporate governments (United States, Australia, or other “cartel states”) do not apply to the Embassy unless explicitly accepted in a signed agreement.

- 5. Right of Self-Determination

The Embassy affirms its right to self-determination as recognized under natural law and international principles.

By engaging with this Embassy in any capacity — including, but not limited to, website use, correspondence, contractual agreements, visits to Embassy premises, participation in events, or any form of live interaction — you acknowledge and accept the above Notice of Jurisdiction.

Respectfully submitted,

Ra Satnam

– Head Ambassador for the Nation of Gods –
